4 YOUR CREDITS ARE GOOD HERE: RCU: THE TRANSFER-FRIENDLY UNIVERSITY

- Unlike other schools that put stipulations on the types and number of transfer credits they'll accept, Rochester Christian University will work with you to allow the transfer of as many credits as possible so you get the maximum benefit from your previous coursework:
 - > Up to 45 credit hours toward an Associate degree
 - > Up to 90 hours toward a Bachelor's degree
- RCU participates in the Michigan Transfer Agreement, which allows up to 30 credits of general education courses from any community college in the state.

5 YOU'VE HIT THE JACKPOT: YOU WIN WITH RCU! RCU: FINANCIAL AID

- Tuition is more affordable than you think—Most RCU students receive some type of financial aid, and many are eligible for other federal or state assistance.
- $2,000 Transfer Scholarship—Available to transfer students who meet the Transfer Student guidelines and transfer 16 or more college credit hours.
- RaiseMe Micro-Scholarships—Earn up to $2,000 per year in micro-scholarships toward tuition at RCU through RaiseMe, a program that recognizes your academic, extracurricular and community service achievements during college.
- Other Undergraduate/Transfer Financial Aid Options—
 - > Federal Pell Grant
 - > Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant (SEOG)
 - > Federal Stafford Loan
 - > Federal Work Study
 - > Michigan Tuition Grant
